

public members who were paired until tomorrow and had left the city. If a vote were taken tonight, Mr. Merritt said, it would place them in the embarrassing position of having to explain to their constituents why they failed to vote on such an important proposition as the election of a United States Senator.

Leader Wagner explained that the Republicans had been notified to be on hand all day and something might develop, whereupon Mr. Merritt said he had received no such notification.

"It puts me in a bad position with my party associates," said Merritt. Senator Hayne also protested against an adjournment until to-night and asked for fair play and consideration for the minority. Such an adjournment, he said, would not be in line with the efforts being made to harmonize every available man. He explained that as the caucus had already been called for to-morrow morning, an intermediate session would necessarily be fruitless.

Senator Brackett declared he had no objection to the adjournment, but keeping the wires hot, he thought no harm could come from a recess until to-morrow. Senator Wagner finally agreed.

Proceedings of the Caucus.

At the opening of to-day's caucus, which did not reassemble until noon, Senator Bayne moved that a recess be taken until to-morrow. He stated that efforts were being made to solve the Senatorial tangle which has perturbed the proceedings of the Legislature for more than two months, and he had good reason for believing that the taking of a recess would hasten that result.

Senator Hayne then called upon Majority Leader Assemblyman Smith to make a statement, adding that he hoped it would be frank.

"We are trying to settle this question, and I am glad to be able to say that a settlement is now in sight," said Mr. Smith. "We have been actually working night and day and if we can settle the question to-morrow noon we can pass a concurrent resolution adjourning both Houses for about a week. This will give the Capitol officials a chance to repair our quarters."

"It is impossible to conduct the business of the Legislature in such quarters as we now have. We must have a full attendance at the caucus to-morrow morning."

"Negotiations are going on with the men without whom it seems impossible to reach a result. Let us clear up this matter and make it possible to go home, have a good rest and get refreshed and ready for the arduous business before us."

Senator Griffin inquired why the caucus could not be held to-night.

He Keeps the Secret.

"For good and sufficient reasons, which I trust the Senator will excuse me from explaining at this time," rejoined Senator Bayne.

"Certainly," responded Senator Griffin. The motion to adjourn until to-morrow morning was then adopted without dissent.

JUSTICE DOWLING GETS A MESSAGE AND HURRIES AWAY.

The report that Justice Dowling had been selected as the compromise candidate for United States Senator reached The Evening World office from Albany shortly before 2 o'clock this afternoon. At that very time Justice Dowling, who is sitting in the Appellate Division, received a message that appeared to cause him some agitation. Hastily putting on his hat and coat, he hurried from the Appellate Division court-house, neglecting to inform the attaches where he was going or if he intended to return.

Justice Dowling's friends know that he has been solicited for weeks, not only by the Tammany organization, but by Democrats who have no Tammany alliances to enter the Senatorial race. He has been practically assured that all that stands between him and the Senatorship is a word to be said. It would be with great reluctance that Justice Dowling would give up the hard but congenial and remunerative work on the Supreme Court bench to enter the arena of political life at a salary of $7,500 a year. His friends say that up to noon to-day he had steadfastly refused to allow his name to be placed before the majority on a caucus date for the office. What happened after noon and what message caused his hurried departure from the court can only be conjectured.

McCall Says He Has No Intention of Resigning.

Justice McCall, when asked about the report that he might be elected Senator, said that he knew nothing about having been selected, and that he had no intention of resigning his position as a judge to go to the United States Senate.
